PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

SOFTWARE ENGINEER – HCL Technologies | Chennai, India

09/2021 – 01/2025 (3.5 Years)

- Owned day-to-day social media execution and community engagement across Instagram, TikTok, and YouTube Shorts for enterprise brand initiatives at HCL Technologies, publishing 50+ posts monthly in authentic, consistent voice while monitoring engagement metrics and responding to community feedback in real time.
- Created and published short-form social content including Reels, TikTok videos, and behind-the-scenes storytelling using CapCut and Premiere Pro, repurposing single shoots into 5–8 distinct social-first assets optimized for platform-native formats and audience behavior.
- Managed content calendars and campaign rollouts across multiple channels, coordinating cross-functional shoots with internal teams and external collaborators; planned logistics, scheduled shoots, secured locations, and ensured seamless execution on the ground with adaptability under pressure.
- Captured real-time, on-location content during enterprise events and brand activations, demonstrating resourcefulness and reliability to deliver usable footage and moments that connected authentically with audiences without overcomplicating production workflows.
- Developed strong understanding of DTC brand storytelling and positioning through data analytics coursework and MSc capstone projects, analyzing audience behavior, engagement trends, and content performance to inform strategic narrative development and editorial decisions.
- Collaborated with marketing teams, stakeholders, and external production partners to turn raw shoots into polished, multi-platform outputs; supported editors and creatives through feedback cycles, ensuring content landed properly and felt real, not overproduced or generic.
