PROJECTS

Enterprise Data Pipeline & Monitoring System (HCL Technologies)

- Designed end-to-end ETL pipeline using Python and SQL to ingest, transform, and validate multi-source transactional data (PostgreSQL, Oracle) for real-time analytics.
- Deployed pipeline on AWS Lambda with scheduled execution via CloudWatch Events; stored processed datasets in S3 for downstream consumption by analytics teams.

- Implemented Splunk-based monitoring and alerting for data quality metrics (row counts, null checks, schema validation), achieving 99.2% pipeline reliability and reducing incident response time by 40%.

REST API Development & Containerization (HCL Technologies)

- Developed Java Spring Boot microservices exposing REST APIs for real-time data querying and aggregation, serving downstream analytics and reporting applications.
- Containerized services using Docker and orchestrated deployment via Jenkins CI/CD pipelines; reduced deployment failures by 25% through environment parity.
- Collaborated on code reviews and maintained high test coverage; used Git branching strategy for parallel feature development in Agile sprints.
